RECOLLECTIONS

Burnley and the Wanderers have met regularly in the Lancashire Cup Competition, the first being in 1886/87 when Bolton won 5-1 on their way to the final only to lose out to Preston North End.

On the 19th January 1896 Burnley came to Burnden Park in the first round of the competition in what was the first ever cup tie on the ground. Despite a goal from Bob Tannahill a 5,000 crowd saw the visitors win 2-1.

Other games in the competition since the turn of the century are as follows:-

1898-99	2nd round	Bolton 3	Burnley 2
1900-01	2nd round	Burnley 5	Bolton 0
1901-02	2nd round	Bolton 1	Burnley 1
	Replay	Burnley 3	Bolton 2
1905-06	1st round	Bolton 4	Burnley 0
1911-12	Final	Burnley 1	Bolton 4
1923-24	1st round	Burnley 2	Bolton 0
1926-27	3rd round	Burnley 0	Bolton 3
1927-28	2nd round	Burnley 1	Bolton 3
1933-34	1st round	Bolton 3	Burnley 0
1951-52	2nd round	Burnley 2	Bolton 1

Since the reintroduction of the competition in 1982 the clubs have faced each other on four occasions.

In 1985 Burnley won 4-0 at Turf Moor with Wayne Biggins hitting his second hat trick of the week and the other goal coming from Neil Grewcock.

A year later the Wanderers made amends with a 3-2 win at Burnley in an exciting encounter. George Oghani put Bolton in front after 8 minutes but Ashley Hoskin equalised four minutes before the interval.

Jimmy Phillips restored Bolton's lead before Jim Heggarty levelled but Dave Sutton grabbed a powerful winner nine minutes from the end with a header from a Mark Gavin corner.

In 1987 Burnley visited Burnden with a 1-1 draw resulting. A Steve Gardner own goal put Bolton in front but George Oghani equalised for his new club with ten minutes left.

Last year two David Reeves goals, the first after 20 seconds, put Bolton on top at Turf Moor but second half goals from Peter Mumby and Andy Farrell made it a 2-2 draw.

David Reeves opens the scoring at Turf Moor last season.

Played a key role in the great escape of 1986/87 and although he has played at left-back, most of his Burnley appearances have been in the middle of defence. Burnley Club Captain until an injury suffered against Colchester on 24th September 1988 kept him out of action for much of the 1988/89 season.
